What is Home Rule and how does it differ from General Law?

In general terms, the specific powers of General Law cities are spelled out in the State statutes. These cities are restricted to performing the services and exercising the regulatory powers spelled out in the State law books including the Government Code and the Local Government Code. If there is no State law authorizing or specifically implying authority for a particular General Law city action, none may be taken. The reverse is true for Home Rule cities. Unlike General Law cities, which look to the State to tell them what they may do, Home Rule cities look to the Texas Constitution and State laws to see what they are forbidden to do.

Home Rule was established by Texas voters in 1912 and enabling legislation was passed in 1913.

What is a City Charter?

Home Rule cities must write and adopt a Charter. The Charter is akin to a municipal constitution that is written and adopted by an election of the citizens. The Charter defines and limits the powers, duties and responsibility of local government based on local preferences and desires. It defines the form of local government and establishes organizational provisions. The citizens determine the necessary controls over their city government such as elections, referendums, initiatives, and recall, and define the procedures to amend the Charter. Essentially, the Charter describes and defines local government based on local preferences and controls as opposed to general laws written by the Texas legislature.

- 1) Home Rule is self-governance in its ultimate form. The Charter is written by the citizens, adopted by the citizens and defines the local government. Unlike the general laws of the State, which may address a multitude of conditions faced in many Texas communities, Home Rule Cities define for themselves how they want to be governed.
- 2) Home Rule communities have a variety of tools available to manage the affairs of city government. The Charter provides a local response to the form of government desired by citizens; defines the structure of city government; establishes controls over city finances; and limitations on the powers of city government.

- 3) Initiative, Referendum and Recall are three separate facets of direct democracy reserved for exclusive use by local voters that provide direct remedies in unusual situations. These powers are unique to Home Rule Cities and not available to voters at any other level of government.
 - a) An initiative petition asks the City Council to act on a specific issue when it has not done so previously. If valid, the Council must adopt the petition or submit it to a vote of the people.
 - b) A referendum petition asks the City Council to reverse an action already taken or proposed. The Council can rescind the ordinance that is the subject of the referendum petition or submit it to a vote of the people.
 - c) A recall petition asks the City Council to call an election for a vote to remove one or more Councilmembers and/or the Mayor from office. The targeted official may resign or stand for the recall election.
- 4) As communities grow, they must deal with increasingly complex issues and require flexibility in addressing those issues. The Home Rule Charter provides the flexibility to address the complexity of local government. It is no coincidence that the vast majority of Texas cities that have reached the 5,000-population threshold have elected to pursue their own Home Rule Charter as opposed to remaining a General Law City.
- 5) Once a Charter is adopted, the citizens retain control over the Charter through the amendment process. This ensures the citizens are always in a position to determine the form, power, and authority of their city government.

The following are frequently asked questions to help learn more about a proposed Home Rule Charter.

Why add an additional Council Member?

- Adding a council member expands elected representation to residents, and positions Justin for the growth we're experiencing.
- 6 is the national average of City Council seats, or place numbers.
- There are fewer committees and departments in Justin than a larger city and the city councilmembers thus have a higher workload.
- So that the Mayor can be a voting member and maintain an odd number for voting.

Why majority vote instead of plurality vote?

- To avoid a nominee winning a seat with a minority of the votes cast. For example, a nominee in a field of 3 could win with 34% of the votes.
- A majority vote addresses the issue by ensuring that the number of votes to win must be above 50%.
- This was decided with an eye toward the future. At some point Justin may want to have geographical-represented Council seats; having a majority vote approach to elections positions us to make that move if residents decide in a future review of the HRC to move in that direction.

Why election by place number?

- This relates to the majority/plurality vote question. Having Council positions numbered helps us moving forward since we will be electing half of the positions in any election cycle.
- At-Large place numbers allow councilmembers to be more impartial and rise above the limited perspective of a single district or area and concern themselves with the problems of the whole community.
- If the community becomes larger and more diverse, and a need arises to have councilmembers represent underrepresented districts, some of the place numbers could be changed to districts and some places could remain at large.
- To enable majority voting.

Why a 3-year term for Mayor?

- To provide stability on the council since 1/2 of the council members are up for reelection every two years.
- A better question is why a Council-Manager form of government? (so that the administration of the city is removed from politics; greater attention can be given to appointing a qualified and professional manager; and bad managers can be more easily replaced than recalling a bad Mayor.)
- The Mayor position is crucial to forecasting, visioning and leading Justin to be it's best.
- The Mayor is the face of Justin and by giving that position a longer term than other Council members allows that forecasting, visioning and leadership to develop.

Why a 2-year term for Council Members?

- This mirrors what we currently have, 2-year terms.
- The reasoning for 2 years is to keep the council members close to community interests by requiring them to hear from the voters every two years.

Why term limits? 3 terms for Mayor, 4 terms for Council?

- To increase diversity and encourage new leadership.
- Importantly, terms give more opportunity for a larger group of residents to participate. This helps Justin take advantage of fresh ideas that newly elected representation brings.

Why a 3-year limit on an elected official retaining employment or contract with the City?

- This helps Justin have transparency in government and avoid conflicts of interest.
- Whether it is 3 years or 1 year, there should be some limit to maintain distance between elected officials and contractors. It would avoid a situation where a council member was involved in initiating a project and then jumped off the council and capitalized on a contract with the city.

Why should Council affirm chairperson for the Planning and Zoning Commission?

- Because the P & Z is an important committee and there is a need to make sure it is run professionally by someone experienced.
- As cities grow, adjustments to how Boards and Commissions relate are often made, this adjustment helps provide for a better working relationship while preserving the autonomy of Council and Planning & Zoning.

Why submit a background for candidacy?

- The Committee felt this would verify that a candidate is eligible to serve.
- To screen out those 'moral turpitude' cases. The background check goes a step further than a sworn application statement from the candidate - assuming that a candidate who is morally turpitudinous will lie on the application form about prior convictions, or mental incapacitation, or other qualifications.

Why do we need a Board of Ethics?

- Although there is state law and several provisions in the charter that prohibit unethical conduct related to conflicts of interest, disclosures of financial interests, and sets forth the penalties for those found in violations, it was felt by some that there needs to be a board to allow citizens to bring forth complaints against city officials and to have the complaints investigated.
- In addition, a good board could help train city officials on the soon-to-be-adopted ethics ordinance, especially with new council members and other officials.
- Also, a good board could issue advisory opinions and propose amendments to the ordinance as needed over time.
- The Committee viewed this to hold elected representatives accountable, in a timely manner, should unethical behavior occur.

PREAMBLE

Recognizing that effective government is a government of law, we the people of Justin, Texas establish this Charter as the basic law of our City. This Charter will provide a home rule government which will recognize and protect individual freedom, encourage interest and participation by citizens, serve on behalf of the general welfare, and uphold the Constitution of the United States of America.

ARTICLE I. FORM OF GOVERNMENT AND BOUNDARIES

Section 1.01 Form of government.

The municipal government provided by this Charter, shall be known as the "Council-Manager Government." Pursuant to its provisions, and subject only to the limitations imposed by the State Constitution, state statutes, and by this Charter, all powers of the City shall be vested in an elective council, hereinafter referred to as the "City Council," which shall enact local legislation, adopt budgets, determine policies, and appoint the City officials as noted in this Charter, including the City Manager, who in turn, shall be held responsible to the City Council for the execution of the laws and the administration of the government of the City. All powers of the City shall be exercised in the manner prescribed by this Charter, or if the manner not be prescribed, then in such manner as may be prescribed by ordinance, the State Constitution, or by state statutes.

Section 1.02 The boundaries.

The citizens of the City of Justin, Denton County, Texas, residing within its corporate limits, excluding its extraterritorial jurisdiction, are hereby constituted and shall continue to be a municipal body politic and corporate, in perpetuity, under the name of the "City of Justin," with such powers, privileges, rights, duties, authorities, and immunities, as are herein provided. The City shall maintain an official map of its boundaries in accordance with state law.

- (2) Whenever, in the opinion of the City Council, there exists within the corporate limits of the City any territory, either inhabited or uninhabited, not suitable or necessary for City purposes, or upon a petition signed by a majority of the qualified voters residing in said territory, the Council may, upon a public hearing and by ordinance duly passed, discontinue said territory as part of the City. The City shall comply with all applicable procedural rules and notice requirements set forth in state law.

ARTICLE II. POWERS OF THE CITY

Section 2.01 General powers of the City.

The City shall be an incorporated Home Rule City, and shall have power to ordain and establish such acts, laws, rules, regulations, resolutions and ordinances not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of Texas or this Charter, as shall be needful for the government, interests, health, welfare and good order of said City and its inhabitants. Under the name of the City of Justin, it shall be known in law and have succession and be capable of contracting and being contracted with, suing and being sued, impleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered in all courts and tribunals in all amounts whatsoever, subject to the laws of the State of Texas currently in effect or which shall hereafter be passed.

Section 2.02 Rights reserved.

All suits, taxes, penalties, fines, forfeiture and all other rights, claims and demands of every kind and character which have accrued under the law in favor of the City of Justin shall belong to and vest in said City and shall not abate by reason of the adoption of this Charter, and shall be prosecuted and collected for the use and benefit of the City of Justin and shall not be in any manner affected by the adoption of this Charter; but as to all of such rights, the laws under which they shall have accrued shall be deemed to be in full force and effect.

Section 2.03 Local self-government.

The City of Justin shall possess and may exercise the full power of local self-government. Any person who is elected to a vacated Councilmember office midterm shall serve only the remainder of the regular term. A person appointed by this subsection shall meet all requirements and qualifications of the Charter as stated in this article.

Following a review by the City Attorney for enforceability and legality, registered voters of the City may initiate legislation by submitting a petition addressed to the City Council which requests the submission of a proposed ordinance or resolution to a vote of the registered voters of the City. Initiative petitions are subject to the limitations of Section 7.12 and must be signed by twenty percent (20%) of the registered voters of the City, or five hundred (500), whichever is greater, and each copy of the petition shall have attached to it a copy of the proposed legislation. The petition shall be signed in the same manner as recall petitions are signed, as provided in this Article, and shall be verified by oath in the manner and form provided for recall petitions in this Article. Upon presentation to the City Council, it shall become the duty of the City Council, within two (2) regularly scheduled City Council meetings after the receipt thereof, to pass and adopt such ordinance or resolution without alteration as to meaning or effect in the opinion of the persons filing the petition, or to call a special election to be held on the next uniform election date as provided by the Texas Election Code, as amended, at which the registered voters of the City shall vote on the question of adopting or rejecting the proposed legislation. Any election order so issued shall comply fully with the Texas Election Code, as amended. Unless otherwise provided by law, any election for an initiative under this Charter shall be held on the first authorized uniform election date that occurs after the sixty-second (62nd) day after the petition was presented to the City Council.

If the City Secretary deems that a petition is insufficient, the city secretary shall, within twenty-one (21) days after the date the initiative petition was filed, notify in writing the persons who filed the petition. Such notification must identify the reasons why the petition failed to meet the requirements of this article. Nothing in this article prevents a citizen from resubmitting an initiative petition that corrects the errors or omissions identified by the City Secretary.

Section 7.14 Referendum.

Subject to the limitations of Section 7.12, Registered voters of the City may require that an ordinance or resolution passed by the City Council be submitted to the voters of the City for approval or disapproval by submitting a petition for this purpose within thirty (30) days after final passage of said ordinance or resolution. Thereupon the City Council shall immediately reconsider such ordinance or resolution. If the City Council does not entirely repeal the same, the City Council shall submit it to popular vote as provided in this Charter. Pending the holding of such election, each ordinance or resolution shall be suspended from taking effect. An ordinance or resolution subject to a vote under this section shall not take effect until and unless a majority of the registered voters vote in favor of said ordinance or resolution. Unless otherwise provided by law, any election for a referendum under this Charter shall be held on the first authorized uniform election date that occurs after the sixty-second (62nd) day after the petition was presented to the City Council.

If the City Secretary deems that a petition is insufficient, the city secretary shall, within twenty-one (21) days after the date the referendum petition was filed, notify in writing the

The City Council, upon its own motion and by the affirmative vote of a majority of the full membership of the City Council, may submit to popular vote at any election for adoption or rejection any proposed ordinance or resolution or measure, or may submit for repeal any existing ordinance, or resolution, or measure, in the same manner and with the same force and effect as provided in this Article for submission of petition, and may at its discretion call a special election for this purpose.
